

10 place du Panthéon - 75005 Paris

Interlibrary loan service

Conditions and fees for loans abroad

- The loaned books must be consulted only inside your library under your responsibility. Home loans are not allowed.
- The loan of a book will last 3 weeks at most from the date on which you'll receive the book. At any moment, you can ask for an extension of the loan by writing us at bsgpeb@sorbonne-nouvelle.fr.
- In any case the borrowing library is responsible for the document from the day it has been sent until it has been returned. Thank you for taking all precautionary and measures via the Post-Office. (B.O. n° 26 du 27 juin 1985)
- Are EXCLUDED from lending:
 - microfilms
 - books from the free access collections
 - books from the legal deposit
 - periodicals, magazines and reviews
 - books printed before 1900
 - rare and precious books
 - books in bad material conditions
 - books from the syllabus of competitions
 - books whose price is less than €18
 - books stored away in our Technical Center (CTLes)
 - books of a large size and/or heavy weight (often the case with folios)
- The fee for printed copies excerpted from periodicals or books will be €9 for less than 15 pages and €12 if the article contains 15 pages or more.
- The copyright law makes it an obligation to limit the reproduction of a periodical to under 30% of the whole publication and 10% of the entire book. The copies will not exceed 50 pages.
- The cost of a loan is €15.
- The payment must be done by the borrowing library as soon as the invoice is received, either by check or by bank transfer: RGF CB 10071 Guichet 75000 0000100300004. We accept IFLA vouchers, but not cash, reply coupons, postage stamps, or euro checks. You have to pay in Euros clearable in a French bank. If you're willing to pay by IFLA voucher, please note that:
 - The loan of a book equals 2 IFLA vouchers;
 - Photocopies, if more than 15 pages, equal 1 IFLA + ½ IFLA vouchers;
 - Photocopies, if less than 15 pages, equal 1 IFLA voucher.
- Ignoring the lending conditions means the suspension of the service.